

THE ETV ROAD SHOW

Wednesday, November 15, 2006

Listed below is the schedule for the ETV Road Show, which will broadcast from the USC Upstate campus on Wednesday, November 15. All faculty and staff are encouraged to stop by for the live broadcasts. Please encourage your students to attend as well. The ETV production truck will be on site and can be toured. All events are scheduled to take place on the lower quad. In the event of inclement weather, the HPAC lobby will be the location.

9:00 a.m.

The ETV Road Show crew arrives on campus and begins setting up the production area and stage for broadcasts.

11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

A live performance by the Spartanburg Jazz Ensemble will be held in the Campus Life Center Ballroom. Lunch is available for $5. This event is sponsored by the Alumni Association. An interview is to be taped with Bill Cobb and Shane Rogers at the event, which will be broadcast on the ETV Road Show segment.

12:00 to 1:00 p.m. “Your Day” (simulcast on both television and radio)

- Dr. Reginald Avery, acting vice chancellor and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs
- Dr. Darrell Parker, dean of the School of Business Administration and Economics

1:00 p.m.

IMPACT, the community service organization for students at USC Upstate, will hold its annual Angel Tree Lighting in the first floor lobby of the Campus Life Center. The Angel Tree gets the entire campus involved in spreading holiday cheer to area children who are served by the Department of Social Services and may otherwise not receive gifts for Christmas. Student groups, individuals and departments line up to adopt an angel for the holidays and then cheerfully go shopping to fulfill the children's wish lists. Students, faculty and/or staff members are to be interviewed about why they support the Angel Tree.

3:00 to 4:00 p.m. “Your Day Extra” (radio show)

- Mike Hall, athletic director
- Eddie Payne, men's basketball coach

7:00 to 8:00 p.m. “ETV Road Show” (television show)

- Marty Fort, instructor for applied music, and the USC Upstate Guitar Ensemble to perform during the hour
- Dr. Reginald Avery, acting vice chancellor and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs
- Jane Nodine, professor of art
- Dr. Marsha Dowell, dean of the Mary Black School of Nursing
- Mike Hall, athletic director

- Omar Figueroa, biology major and participant in South Carolina Washington Semester Program
- Dr. Judy Prince, vice chancellor for Greenville campus
- Students from Angel Tree Lighting.....Carolyn Turner, president of IMPACT, and Michael Berry, SGA President

Pre-taped segments that will air during “ETV Road Show”

- Jimm Cox-- theatre program and Shoestring Players
- Donette Stewart, Dr. Charles Love, and students – USC Upstate advantage
- Dr. Regis Robe and students – international program and study abroad
- Bruce Suddeth – arboretum and beautification efforts

For questions about any of the day's events, contact Tammy E. Whaley, Director of University Communications, at 503-5210 or twhaley@uscupstate.edu.