ARTICLE XI
THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM AND ITS GOVERNANCE

Section 3. AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF THE CHANCELLORS. There shall be a Chancellor of each component four-year institution within the University System, and the President shall serve as and perform the duties of Chancellor for the Columbia campus. The Chancellors shall be the chief administrative officers of their respective campuses and shall have full authority to administer campus affairs and to formulate and issue regulations and orders not inconsistent with the Bylaws, rules, policies and procedures of the Board and the President. They shall be responsible for the participation of their campuses in the overall planning, resource allocation and program evaluation of the University System. The Chancellors shall report directly to the President who in turn shall report to the Board. Within the general authority granted by the Board and the President, the Chancellors shall perform duties and responsibilities including but not limited to the following:

A. As the administrative head of a campus, bear responsibility to the Board through the President for the effective execution of all laws relating to the University of South Carolina System; all resolutions, policies, rules, and regulations adopted by the Board for the administration and operation of the University System and for the governance of all of its campuses; and all policies, rules, regulations, directives and memoranda issued by the President. Each Chancellor’s discretionary powers shall be broad enough to enable him to meet his extensive responsibility to the University and to the applicable local higher education commission. Each Chancellor shall be the official medium of communication between the President and all personnel of his campus.

B. Bear primary responsibility for all of the factors that contribute to the quality of academic (teaching, research, and public service) and support programs of the campus. Such factors include the general supervision of all campus faculties, the allocation and utilization of available resources within the campus, and any and all matters related to the welfare of the campus.

C. Bear responsibility for the general supervision of all relationships between students and the various levels of campus administration. Such supervision includes but is not limited to admissions, registration and records, academic progress and advising, counseling, housing, scholarships and financial aids, student activities and services, placement, foreign students, and the evaluation and certification of academic credit from other institutions.

D. Bear responsibility for the financial management of the campus and its component parts in conformity with University management policies and practices. This function shall include but is not limited to the preparation of budgets, maintenance of financial records and accounts for activities of the campus, the receipt and expenditure of all campus funds, and preparation of required financial reports.

E. Bear responsibility for personnel administration including employment and termination, wage determination and condition of employment within prescribed policies for all employees except those positions requiring action by the President or the Board, and in those cases he shall make recommendations to the President.
F. Bear responsibility for operation and maintenance of the physical plant, purchase of supplies and equipment, and the maintenance of appropriate inventories and records of real and personal property under the jurisdiction of the campus.

G. Bear responsibility for fund raising, intercollegiate athletics, auxiliary enterprises, and alumni activities.

H. Bear responsibility for cooperating closely with the local higher education commission on all matters pertaining to the applicable campus and strive, where possible within established University System policy, to make the campus responsive to local preferences and priorities.

I. Whenever practicable, attend all meetings of the Board and keep the chairman of the local higher education commission apprised of the schedule of such meetings and of the Board's standin
