Section 59-111-320 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended authorizes state-supported colleges, universities and technical schools to permit legal residents of South Carolina who are at least 60 years of age to attend classes on a space-available basis without payment of tuition.

Section 59-111-370 of the Code provides that any applicant who willfully misrepresents his eligibility for the tuition benefits provided for under this act, or any person who knowingly aids or abets such applicant in misrepresenting his eligibility for such benefits, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more that $100 or imprisoned for not more than 30 days.

Please note that we are only authorized to offer free tuition on a space available basis. Therefore, you will be eligible to register for all courses on the first day of class.
