Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Total number of students enrolled in 2014-15:	197

Section I.d Supervised Clinical Experience

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2014-15.

Average number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to student teaching	100
Average number of clock hours required for student teaching	490
Average number of clock hours required for mentoring/induction support	0
Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year	0
Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE and PreK-12 staff)	21
Number of students in supervised clinical experience during this academic year	151

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Section I.e Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2014-15. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

Section I.f Program Completers

Provide the total number of teacher preparation program completers in each of the following academic years:

2014-15: 147

2013-14: 145

2012-13: 184

Section II Annual Goals - Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in mathematics in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2014-15

Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2014-15?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2014-15?

2

Did your program meet the goal for prospective teachers set in mathematics in 2014-15?

Yes

Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We hired new Mathematics Education professor who will be the point person for recruitment of math students into the Math teacher preparation program.

Academic year 2015-16

Is your program preparing teachers in mathematics in 2015-16?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2015-16?

2

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

The mathematics educator and science educator have written an NSF grant to provide scholarships for students considering secondary mathematics or science teaching. These scholarships are intended to increase the number of highly effective mathematics and science teachers in the region. This grant will be submitted in August of 2015 and if funded, will contribute to an additional 15 secondary mathematics teachers over 5 years.

Academic year 2016-17

Will your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2016-17?

Yes

How many prospective teachers does your program plan to add in mathematics in 2016-17?

8

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

The mathematics educator and science educator will be resubmitting an NSF grant to provide scholarships for students considering secondary mathematics or science teaching. These scholarships are intended to increase the number of highly effective mathematics and science teachers in the region. This grant will be resubmitted in August of 2016 and if funded, will contribute to an additional 15 secondary mathematics teachers over 5 years. This grant will also provide a clear path for students in local community and technical colleges into the mathematics teaching profession. This grant will fund support courses for students transitioning from 2-year colleges to USC Upstate. Lastly, this grant will provide support courses for recent graduates. These courses are intended to help teachers (former students) continue to apply best practices and minimize the attrition rate for new teachers.

Section II Annual Goals - Science

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\))

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Yes

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

USC Upstate initial teacher certification programs have selected as pre-student teaching clinical sites specific schools that reflect diversity in their student populations, faculty populations, and in their curricula. Selected schools include those with high needs and at-risk student populations, year-round schedules, high free/reduced lunch student populations, language/cultural immersion classrooms, single-gender classrooms, ESOL student populations, and/or LEP student populations. Placement practices are deliberate to assure our teacher candidates are able to meet the needs of ALL pK-12 students.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State

NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

All School of Education (SoE) students complete an educational technology course in addition to the general education computer science requirement (3 semester hours). Additionally, every SoE classroom contains a Promethean Board and student response systems in a SMART classroom package which faculty use to model effective teaching. Students also practice using this equipment during their presentations in the university classroom as well as lesson implementation in their clinical settings. All methods courses require technology integration projects and presentations. All programs align curricula with ISTE standards.

Teacher candidates complete components of a Teacher Work Sample in stages as they progress through their clinical sequence with a final Teacher Work Sample due at the completion of student teaching. Several of the components of the Teacher Work Sample require students to develop and administer, analyze, and interpret a pre/post assessment. All collected data must be entered, graphed, analyzed, interpreted, and presented, using database and graphing/presentation software.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All USC Upstate teacher candidates enroll in EDFO U341-Introduction to Exceptional Learners/Special Education. As a requirement for this course, students must participate in the IEP-development process at a designated school placement as well as participate in IEP conferencing simulations in the university classroom.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

The School of Education's Bachelor of Science degree in Special Education specifically prepares candidates to meet the South Carolina certification and highly qualified requirements for licensure in Learning Disabilities (K-12). It is a state approved program and has accreditation by the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC). The program of study consists of 122 hours of coursework, comprised of 54 hours in professional education in the areas of learning disabilities (LD) and literacy. In addition to aligning its curriculum offerings with the CEC Content and LD Performance-based Standards, Special Education teacher candidates also design and implement instruction in accordance with the state content standards and demonstrate the professional dispositions defined by the South Carolina Department of Education Standards of Conduct.

The LD Program of study consists of four stages (semesters), systematically designed for Special Education teacher candidates to acquire, practice, and refine competencies in a developmental and recursive manner. The focus for each course is categorized into one of four groups: 1) content, 2) skill, 3) skill-theory, and 4) complete immersion field experience. The content-based courses target corresponding CEC Standards to establish the candidates' knowledge in those areas (i.e., LD Characteristics [stage I], Assessment [stage II], Organization and Management of the Diverse Classroom [stage III], and Issues and Trends in Exceptionalities [IV]). The skill-based classes include field placements where candidates apply multiple CEC Standards that focus on teaching methods for individual content areas (i.e., LD Math and Literacy I [stage I], Literacy II [stage II], LD Reading and LD Language Disorders [stage III]). The skill-theory classes have candidates apply principles of behavioral and cognitive theory (i.e., LD Methods [stage I] and LD Curriculum [stage II]) and the two field-based courses require activities beyond the assignments completed in the method skill-based course practicums (stages II and IV).

The over-arching paradigm shaping all instruction in the LD Program is the principle that a teacher's actions are to be research-based. Student outcomes are measured by what the IDEA refers to as Responsiveness-to-Intervention (RtI) practices. This methodological approach ensures that candidates gain the knowledge and skills proven most likely to accomplish desired student-learning outcomes. Candidates in turn are held accountable for their teaching performances. To accomplish this, the LD Program provides candidates with continuous interactive experiences with schoolchildren in multiple settings, including schools with high poverty communities and student populations from multiple cultural and linguistic backgrounds. In each of their pre-student teaching placements, candidates document in quantifiable terms students' academic gains to evaluate how well their RtI practices are appropriately designed to meet the settings' and students' unique needs. This assessment model measuring overall impact on student learning provides data-driven evidence assuring that candidates employ effective practices.

In addition to working with children who have limited English proficiency in their clinical settings, candidates complete a variety of projects in the Program's Language Disorder class devoted to addressing ELL learner needs. They complete the series of IRIS modules, including its case study and response questions. Candidates also develop lesson plans for demonstrating their ability to select, adapt, and use instructional strategies and materials that address an ELL student's language deficiencies.

Candidates also receive specific training that prepares them for their future roles as members of individualized education program (IEP) teams. In the Program's, first stage, candidates complete exam essay questions regarding the diagnostic process, including the legal rights and responsibilities of participants outlined in IDEA and write four fictitious IEPs. During stage II, candidates complete an assessment report based upon formal testing that they conduct with an assigned student in their practicum setting. In the Program's practicum [stage III], candidates write IEPs for students with whom they teach and attend the IEP meetings. During the final stage, candidates are encouraged to lead an IEP meeting.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

On an annual basis, Program Coordinators (i.e., Elementary, Early Childhood, Learning Disabilities, Middle Level/Secondary, Art, and Physical Education) compile program candidates' performance data into a report that is submitted to the University Assessment Committee. These documents present a summary and an analysis of how the candidates' Praxis II test data, the ADEPT Exit Portfolio ratings, and Teacher Work Sample outcomes indicate program alignment with the Unit's goals, as well as the South Carolina, specialized professional, Common Core, and institutional standards. They also include narratives describing how the program has made improvements based upon the previous year's analysis of data as well as about the decisions made for modifying instruction to meet current best practices. These reports are evaluated by the University Assessment Committee and shared across to the Institution's academic community.
